Altitude, like many online multiplayer games, is only as fun as you make it. The game has smooth controls, a well established sense of "physics", and a sufficient variety of maps and game modes to keep things interesting. However, without any campaign, and lacking any singular objective outside the tried and true "Score more points than the other guys" method, it becomes little more than a simple sport to eat up time. Worth playing, but only for a short time. (Unless you just happen to really really like it.)

TL;DR = Should you play it? Sure...I guess. If it's cheap and you have nothing else to do.. For an early access game, this one blows me away. I love the feeling of floating through space or jetpacking through a spacestation. I always run out of oxygen too quickly! :D. This game is all about the puzzles, Don't really buy it for the story, its cool and kind of interesting but I just enjoyed relaxing and rolling through all the puzzles, worth the small price they're asking for a cool little experience.. So, this is actually a 1.13 patch\mod from Jagged Alliance modders. That mean that the game changes are big, this is actually not Vanilla HD mod. And the vanilla Jagged Alliance 2 is non-HD only. So here some of my thoughts:

1. You don't have to download the free 1.13 mod from the JA forums.
2. Changes to gameplay is ok, but this isn't an JA2 that new-comers should play.
3. To launch HD mod you have to do some manipulation, which is not good. Like, why i have to delete some files from game data and download ddraw.dll fixes? Shame on developers.
4. Still, i'm a big fan of 1.13 mod, it have some perfect changes: you can create up to 8 characters in I.M.P, and the squad-size is increased up to 10 mercs. More-mercs - more shooting - more shooting - more tactics. But option of creation full-custom party is a big "maybe": you dont have to waste much money on A.I.M. mercs, but no fun from mercs dialogs and character.
5. Vanilla JA2 is still have low-resolution, yeah, you got me TopWare, i have two JA2 copy on steam, but with different names...Oh, and i should remember this awesome 2CD version that i got in 2008.

Well, i'll recommend this "dlc" to lazy-gamers (as i am) that don't want to install anything, and just want to play. And strongly not reccomend to others, this mod was free for a long time, if modders get some profits from it - that will be good, if not - shame on developers.

Update #1 - Publisher removed the 1.13 mod from the store, so this dlc is not worth the money anymore.... Awesome Game about fighting ninja Ragdolls !

This game make me laugh.
